Macon Gospel Radio Station & Host Nominated for Prestigious Award

95.5FM and Radio Host, Harold Young are first-time nominees for Stellar Award

Macon, GA – Macon Urban Alliance’s premiere gospel station, 95.5FM/900AM and its local, on-air host, Harold Young, have been nominated for Stellar Award Gospel Station of the Year and Gospel Announcer of the Year. This is the first time the station and Young have been nominated. The Stellar Awards is considered the most prestigious Gospel awards show in the United States and honors Gospel Music artists, writers, and industry professionals.

“I feel so blessed and honored to be nominated for such an amazing award,” says Young. “Being the only local Gospel personality on air has been a rewarding experience. And this award gives Macon a chance to shine nationally and internationally and highlights our thriving Gospel community.”

General Manager and Vice-President of the Macon Urban Alliance, Claudell Price agrees: “Macon has a significant musical legend history with Otis Redding, Little Richard [and others]. The nomination is fitting because Macon has a deep Gospel and R&B background. For 95.5FM to be a part of that is an honor.”

Young is the station's first host since its inception three years ago. "Harold Young works very, very hard on-air and in the community," says Price. "This award represents how important gospel music is to our community. The award is like the GRAMMY Awards for Gospel music."

Harold Young hosts, "Mid-Day Praise Break" Show Monday through Friday from 10am until 3pm. The show plays the latest in contemporary Gospel music, featuring Gospel recording artists such as Kirk Franklin, Travis Greene, Deitrick Haddon, Yolanda Adams, Cece Winans and many others.

About the Stellar Awards:

The Chicago-based Central City Productions, Inc. (CCP) produces the Stellar Gospel Music Awards. It has been 32 years since the first awards show was taped at the Arie Crown Theater in Chicago, and the Stellar Awards has now become the premier Gospel event that recognizes and honors African American artists. This one of a kind award show has showcased top Gospel artists and many television and film stars.
